$400,000 boost for Hospital

Kristine Wyatt KDH Perioperative Services Manager with Mary-Anne Thomas

Mary-Anne Thomas MP, visited Kyneton Hospital last Friday to inspect new medical equipment purchased using $400,000 from the State Regional Health Infrastructure Fund.

The equipment includes a new image intensifier, a new operating table, a new steam system to sterilise medical equipment and a new instrument washer disinfectant.

The upgrade will enable doctors to perform more surgeries and improve the quality, reliability and safety of medical equipment.

This will improve patient outcomes and deliver safer and better care, while also meeting increasing demand for local surgical services.

“Kyneton District Health Service treats people from all over the Macedon Ranges and there’s a growing demand for local surgical services. This new equipment will make sure more patients get the safe, high quality care they need” Mary-Anne Thomas said.

Deputy CEO of KDH Karen Laing said that the new Operating Table and the Image Intensifier will enable us to do procedures via key-hole surgery, such as removal of the gall bladder.

“These procedures would traditionally have required an open operation and several days in hospital to recuperate. When done via the laparoscope, the patient can go home on the day.

“We have several new surgeons who will use this equipment, along with other new equipment we have for urology procedures” Ms Laing said.

Time to join the great art hunt

The first Kyneton Contemporary Art Triennial got off to a flying start last Friday Apr 13 with a 5.30pm opening in the Mechanics Reserve followed by a booked out Launch Party in the Bluestone Theatre starting at 8pm.

This inaugural Contemporary Art Triennial, themed “Force Fields” celebrates the energies that resonate in place and community. It takes the form of an art treasure hunt with the works and activities of 10 artists from across Australia hidden in sometimes unusual places about the town.

Some of the more obvious ones like ‘Working Man’s Hands’ on the side of the goods shed at the Kyneton Railway Station may have sparked the curiosity of those who observed them. Many performances and events took place last weekend but KCAT2018 will continue throughout this week and culminate with many more events on Saturday and Sunday April 21 and 22.

KCAT2018 passes are needed to access most of the triennial’s artworks and contain a map to help you find them.

The passes can be purchased for $15 from the KCAT website or at KCAT headquarters at 2 Jennings St, the Railway Station or Stockroom at 91 Piper St.

KCAT is open 10am-5pm daily.

New Primary School starts

Kyneton Primary students started in their new Edgcombe St School on Tuesday April 17 with Monday 16th April having been a pupil free day to allow staff to finalise their teaching spaces.

All school start and finish times remain the same at the new location.

Airfield safety proposal

The Council is seeking community feedback on a proposal to introduce a Local Law to improve safety around the Kyneton Airfield and minimise potential hazards to both aircraft users and the general community.

Currently, there are no mandatory safety measures to minimise flight hazards within the airspace surrounding the airfield.

The proposed Local Law would ensure that the airfield complies with best practice safety guidelines set by Australia’s Civil Aviation Safety Authority.

It would set out height limits for landowners/occupiers surrounding the airfield for potential obstructions or activities that could pose a safety hazard, such as trees, poles, radio masts, antennas, cranes, lights etc.

Input into these proposed new safety measures by attending a community drop-in session in the Kyneton Mechanics Institute at 6.30 on May 9 or submitting a feedback form by Friday 18 May.

Feedback forms can be submitted online at mrsc.vic.gov.au/yoursay or by visiting a Council Service Centre. or contact the Council’s Operations Department on 54210800.

100 Reasons to Celebrate

The community continues to benefit from the expansion of services for everyone across central Victoria as Cobaw Community Health (Cobaw) increases in size. Starting with three staff in 1986, last month Cobaw celebrated the addition of their 100th staff member. Best & Less closure

The Kyneton Best & Less store closed its doors on Sunday April 15 at the end of its lease.

A major clothing and apparel business is expected to be the new occupant. The store's site in the centre of the town is significant in the town's history.

It was there, on what was then the corner of Baynton and Mollison Streets, that the Junction Hotel was built in 1857.

It was at this hotel where the first Kyneton Municipal Council met on December 14, 1857.

The hotel also had a Coat-of-Arms brought about by visiting Governors who stayed at the Hotel to attend race meetings at the racecourse. In those days it was the custom to allow people to add 'Under Vice Regal Patronage' to their establishments for this honour.

The Kyneton Guardian reported in their September issue of 1964 that Woolworths had bought the Junction Hotel and the two shops beside it fronting Mollison St and the adjoining property in Baynton St (Bourke's garage, formerly Brown & Gardiners coach factory).

On January 16, 1965 Calder Salvage Specialist commenced with the demolition. Mr Morrison of 89 Mollison St, the chemist had until February 24 to vacate as did the other occupant at 87 (formerly Mr Perkins).

By July 1965 the new Woolworths supermarket was taking shape and a car park had been installed at the rear with 50 parking spaces.

The supermarket opened with great fanfare in September 1965 and gave a different appearance to the streetscape.

In 1984 91 Mollison St, (formerly Rawson and Dale's store) was purchased to extend the existing floor space for Woolworths (Safeway). This lovely old building was built in 1891 and was a great attraction to shopper's right up until it closed with its unique interior that was still a remnant of its heyday.

With the building of the current Woolworths (Safeway) supermarket, work commenced in 2002 altering the Mollison St site floor plan to convert the space into two separate premises.

Best and Less opened its doors March 2002, and the old Dale's area then became the Bendigo Bank, which opened June 30 that year.

The Festival begins on Thurs Aug 30 with its opening at the Kyneton Mechanics Institute with the Daffodil

Art Prize and Art Photography Exhibitions and the Youth Art Awards.

Cr Anderson Reports

Congratulations Kyneton Connect on another milestone: Happy 12th Anniversary!

I'd like to focus on reducing waste going to landfill. You have probably heard or read of the waste processing problems due to changes in contracts to do with recyclable material collection and consignment.

The Council is taking steps to solve the problems further up the waste stream, and with your participation and assistance, can make big inroads into turning waste from a burden to a resource.

The Kyneton Tip shop is now up and running, open on all the days the Kyneton Transfer station is open. This is one initiative Council has taken to reducing waste to landfill. Many items with plenty of life left are offered for a nominal price.

Every householder can play their part, by thinking before they purchase: is that much needed, is it a staple that can be purchased in bulk, or can it be bought with less packaging, or recyclable packaging?

Challenge the businesses you shop at to do the same.

Simple things like carrying your own durable water bottle or coffee cup, or using sturdy re-usable picnic plates rather than disposable ones, all help to reduce waste.

Food waste is the biggest issue, so if you do find you have purchased too much, consider giving it to a friend or neighbour, and with any food scraps consider composting them along with garden waste, or start a worm farm.

Ensure you put the right things in your recycling, green waste and regular bins. If you are not sure what to put in which, look at the Loddon Mallee Waste Info App at <https://lmwrrg.vic.gov.au/loddon-mallee-waste-info-app/>

Options for Old School Site

The Council has released the Consultants three options for the future of the now vacated old Kyneton Primary School in Baynton St. More details can be found in Your Say on the Council's website.

Public feedback is being invited on the options and what changes people would like to see. The deadline for feedback and submissions is April 23.

In essence the options presented are:

Concept One: The Council purchases the entire site, retains both the heritage building and the 1984 extension and refurbishes the rooms and site for community use. The Council would manage and maintain the site.

Concept Two: The Council purchases the entire site, retains both the heritage building and possibly the 1984 extension (although the possibility of it being demolished is retained) The Heritage building is leased to a commercial business who would manage that section and meet the cost of refurbishing it. The Council would manage and maintain the 1984 extension (if retained) in a similar manner to concept one. The 1984 extension would contain a mixture of community and business use.

Concept Three: The site is subdivided and most sold to private developers. In all three options the Council purchases the open space at the east of the school site.

All three options also include a new north-south road between Simpson and Baynton St which the options documents see as reducing traffic in Mollison and Ebdon St. The origins of the proposed road are not clear but it has drawn widespread criticism for destroying the connectivity of the entire site and endangering people using the open space at the east end.

The Windarring offer

Two weeks ago Windarring disability service, through its president Chinka Steel, announced that it will be seeking to purchase the entire old KPS site, retaining both the heritage building and the 1984 extension and refurbishing them. Windarring wishes to operate in the 1984 extension.

Chinka Steel said that Windarring would be prepared to work with both CRAFT and community groups to accommodate their activities.

Questions that were asked

At the March Drop-in Consultation people discussing options for the old Kyneton Primary School site, sought clarification of aspects in all 3 plans for areas outside the site.

The popular fenced children's playground was not on the plans – was this intentional? Answer: Yes, the equipment would be spread throughout the open space at the eastern end of the old School site.

Why wasn't the Lions Kiosk on the plans? Answer: The kiosk would be placed elsewhere.

The service lane adjacent to the Library enabling deliveries to the Library, the Bowling Club and its restaurant wasn't on the plan—how will this be overcome? Answer: An east-west lane could be run from inside the Primary school site.

The grassed area from the Mechanics Reserve has been extended about 50m east along Baynton St and consumes half of its width – how will this work? Answer: The grass has the potential to connect the Mechanics Reserve with the proposed community open space at the east of the old school site and augment that space. Access to the car park could still be maintained. The width of Baynton St could be reduced and still provide sufficient function.

Each of the above "proposals" was included on all 3 master plans with no written explanation.

Kyneton Connect sought further explanation from the Council.

A Council spokesperson said "A master plan determines a vision for an area. Further investigation into and feasibility of specific requirements relating to a site occurs at a future stage. Residents are encouraged to include their thoughts on the items raised (playground, Lion's Kiosk, access, traffic management) into their submissions to the current consultation".

Editorial Comment

With the students of Kyneton Primary School having now moved to their new school, the time is near to decide the future of the original Baynton St School and its surrounding site.

The Council engaged consultants to assist it and the State Government, with whom the final decision lies, to propose options for them to consider. The first two of the consultant's options involve the Council purchasing the entire site and the third subdividing and selling most of the site off to private developers - options the Council had said it did not favour.

Although in their report the consultants acknowledged the option favoured by this newsletter that the State Government could retain ownership and set up an arrangement for community, not Council, management of the site, it was an option they chose not to explore.

The time has come, Kyneton Connect believes, for the Council and the State to engage directly with this community and its leaders to achieve a town centre which is truly of this community.

New guidelines, currently being developed with details of the Festival's requirements, will be published soon.

SPICE Intergeneration playgroup is a monthly playtime held at Bupa Aged Care Services Kyneton. SPICE: 'Songs & Play for Intergenerational Community Engagement', was designed to create an interactive play space for community connections between young families and the elderly of the community.

Already a hit with the residents of Bupa and young families, SPICE is a time of free play, live music, craft, games and good times.

SPICE is not only a time of play for our young families but it teaches our young ones to interact with the elderly community, to value them and encourage community interaction.

It is the perfect space for people who don't have family and grandparents in the community.

SPICE also engages the elderly community who love the opportunity to play with kids, to chat with parents and engage with the wider community.

All community members are invited to attend SPICE, kids and adults of any age.

No cost, just turn up ready to play.

SPICE runs on the last Friday of every month from 10am at Bupa, 2 Edgecombe St.

The next SPICE is on Apr 27.

Little Aths Season wrap-up

It was a busy season over the 2017/18 summer for Kyneton Little Aths with 104 registered athletes.

It was great to watch the skills, confidence and personal best results grow for the kids every week. Fifteen of Kyneton's athletes travelled to Shepparton for the Regional Track and Field Competition in March with four progressing to State Championships and one to Nationals.

The Club is looking forward to doing it all again next year, having voted in a new committee at its recent AGM.

The focus for 2018/19 is a new shed (as they have outgrown their old one) and possibly increased coaching/training opportunities for everyone, midweek, as well as the Saturday morning competition days.

Stay tuned or check out www.kynetonlac.com.au.

Kyneton CWA

On Friday 23 March the Kyneton Country Woman's Association held their annual Easter raffle for the Royal Children's Hospital Good Friday Appeal, outside the Woolworths store and would like to thank all who supported them. The $1035.60 raised all went to the Good Friday Appeal.

Through other fundraising, Kyneton CWA has also given their support to those who were affected by the recent fires by sending a $500 cheque to Blaze Aid.

Both last year and again this year the CWA donated $500 to assist the Kyneton Junior Football Club.

Money is not always needed but help is, so when the call came asking the CWA if they could make Christmas decorated coveralls for residents at RM Begg Kyneton Aged Care, the CWA got busy on their sewing machines and made 20 very special coveralls.

Kyneton CWA meet on the third Thursday of each month at the Baptist Church in Ebdon St. Anyone interested in attending is most welcome. For information about Kyneton CWA contact Ann Piggott on 54223903.

Rotary Fundraising for PNG

On February 26 a devastating earthquake hit the Southern Highlands of Papua New Guinea.

Mountains collapsed, roads buckled, bridges disappeared, rivers were diverted or dammed and whole villages were wiped out.

Over 100 people were killed and thousands injured. Over half a million people were and are affected and over one hundred and fifty thousand of them with unsuitable or no housing.

Dr Tana Kiak is a Gynecologist/Obstetrician and Surgeon at Tari Hospital in the Hela Province in the Southern Highlands of Papua New Guinea. He is also married to a local Kyneton midwife and nurse Katy Condliffe who was expecting their second child.

Despite damage to the Hospital and danger on the roads and travelling to remote sites by helicopter Dr Tana and his colleagues worked through gruelling non-stop days often working and operating by lights of generators and even mobile phones! By plane, road and on foot they provided the critical surgical and emergency interventions that saved many lives and gave hope to many people.

Dr Tana left the last flight out of Tari before the airport was closed again when relieved by incoming disaster relief surgeons and medical teams, to be with his wife for the birth of their second child. Following the birth Dr Tana has now returned to the Southern Highlands.

Kyneton Rotary has already donated $1,000 to help the people of Tari town and Hela province and is hoping to do more.

You can contact the Secretary on 0419397936 or via Facebook.
